country in orchestral music. We want to make this a permanent part of the Annual program. Be a charter member!

A few opinions regarding the supervisors orchestra.

"For many years have I thought about the feasibility of a Conference orchestra in connection with the concert of the supervisors, and I think that your plan is an excellent one."—Eugene M. Hahnel, supervisor of orchestras, St. Louis, Mo.

"I think the idea of an orchestra among the supervisors is as worth while as that of the chorus, which has been so successful for several years. And a goodly number of supervisors, who I suspect are, like myself, more proficient on instruments than they are vocally, should answer the call."—Chas. Ernest Parke, supervisor of music, Columbus, Neb.

"I am more than willing to do all I can to help the move along. You can count on me for whatever instrument you need most."—J. E. Maddy, supervisor of music, Richmond, Ind.

"I think the plan for a supervisors' orchestra entirely feasible and an much interested in the idea."—Geraldine Richmond, grade school music instructor, Henry, Ill.

"I am much interested in the idea and will do my part."—Carl Borgwald, Central High School, Duluth, Minn.

"It seems to me that your plan for an orchestra for the St. Joseph Conference is a mighty good one. I shall be very glad to do anything within my power to help the thing along."—Harold P. Wheeler, Bandmaster, State Agricultural College, Manhattan, Kansas.

"The scheme is a good one. I shall be glad to help in any way I can."—Russell V. Morgan, East Technical High School, Cleveland, Ohio.

"I believe the proposed supervisors' orchestra for the St. Joseph Meeting is feasible and it will be a pleasure for me to be of any assistance."—V. E. Dillard, supervisor of music, Washington, Ind.

"I am enthusiastically in favor of attempting the orchestra idea."—Osbourne McConathy, Northwestern University, Evanston, Ill.

"I am enthusiastic about the supervisors' orchestra and will surely be there."—F. A. Tubbs, supervisor of music, Bryan, Ohio.

"A supervisors orchestra at the National Conference strikes me as being just the thing; I feel certain that it can be done and shall be glad to do what I can to help the cause along."—Marguerite Grace, assistant supervisor of music, St. Louis, Mo.

WHY NOT NOW?

Are you a member of the most important association of musicians in the world? If so allow me to congratulate you and to suggest that you send in your renewal now as we need money to pay a very large printer's bill. If not, why not join now and thus ally yourself actively with an association that is to have the largest influence in bringing more music and better music into the lives of all the people that any organization has ever had? The dues are reasonable ($3.00 for new members, $2.00 for renewals); the cause is vitally important; the time is propitious; WHY NOT NOW?

K. W. GEHRKENS, Treasurer, Oberlin, Ohio.

SUPERVISORS

Who among you, have not heard of Mr. Glenn H. Woods, (a member of your own Board of Directors) and his miracle work, in teaching Public School Music?

Mr. Woods, has bought hundreds of dollars worth of music from us in the past ten years. See what he says in own book, To Supervisors, about

THE EDUCATOR

New and Modern Method for Military Band and Orchestra This method, and the follow up books we have, will clear the sky of your troubles in securing suitable music for School Orchestras. They are used in hundreds of Schools throughout the United States. The EDUCATOR, is the only book published with questions and answers, similar to the ordinary School text-book. For Band—20 books $5.00. For Orchestra—11 books $5.00. Name instruments and number of each, you desire books for.

"PILGRIMS GOING TO CHURCH" BOUGHTON, 1834

Is your school celebrating the Tercentenary?

The Victrola can help you as nothing else in your festivals, fêtes and pageants. A rich store-house of corselative historical music, recorded especially for schools, is yours with a Victrola and Victor Records in your classroom.

What music did the Pilgrims know and use? The Cavaliers in Virginia? What music did they find here?

Victrola XXV especially manufactured for School use

This is the instrument that is used in thousands of schools. Many years' experience has proved it is the instrument best adapted to all-round school use.

When the Victrola is not in use, the horn can be placed under the instrument safe and secure from danger, and the cabinet can be locked to protect it from dust and promiscuous use by irresponsible people.
